Twenty Questions to Keep Your Team Engaged

Here are twenty questions to ask your team to start a virtual conversation via Zoom, Skype, email, text, etc. Regular communication, sharing and collaboration helps keep employees engaged while they are working remotely and isolated at home.

1. What is/was the best part of your day?
2. How are you staying active?
3. What remote working best practice can you share?
4. What challenges are you facing?
5. What can I do to help you be successful during this time?
6. How are you feeling?
7. What’s going well for you right now?
8. What do you like best about telecommuting?
9. What do you like least about telecommuting?
10. What do you miss most about the office?
11. What are you currently working on that’s keeping you engaged?
12. What’s your go-to productivity trick?
13. What is the best thing that happened to you this week/last week, professionally or personally?
14. What are some great contributions you have seen other members of the team make?
15. What do you look most forward to after COVID-19?
16. Who inspires you?
17. What is one thing you are deeply passionate about?
18. Who would you swap places with for a day?
19. If you could visit someplace in the world you’ve never been, where would it be?
20. What’s your go-to hobby/pastime while you are stuck at home?

Help us compile our next set of twenty questions! Send your ideas to Joshua Macias, UCI Engagement Coordinator, at jrmacial@uci.edu. Thank you, and stay well.