Sample Gallup Learning Module on Boosting Remote Work Productivity

Introduction: Managers can position remote employees for success by capitalizing on workers' innate abilities instead of only focusing on tasks assigned. Here are some insights into the four domains.

To boost productivity with your remote employees, start by thinking about what you get from each team member and what they give. While you could just list the employee's tasks as what you get from them and what they give you, it is better to focus on the person's natural talents as they apply to their specific role responsibilities.

To quickly spot how someone's talents play into how they get work done, consider four domains: Executing, Relationship Building, Strategic Thinking and Influencing.
